Welcome!

Welcome to The Old School House, the home of Leyburn Arts and Community Centre, and to our first comprehensive brochure with its busy and varied 2018 programme. As well as an outstanding new season of theatre, comedy, film and music by top class national performers and talented local artists, we have an exciting new project for young people, and our first children's theatre shows. These complement our existing range of workshops, exhibitions, U3A classes, societies and social activities for all ages. We're bursting at the seams!

Among the performances we have Britain's favourite Yorkshireman, Ian McMillan, three pieces of striking modern drama (including Dad's Army and a fish and chip supper!), a dramatic wine-tasting and a dazzling flower arranging demo. There is exciting local talent of all kinds, and informing everything we do is our new project for young people, offering exciting opportunities to gain new skills and experiences, and linking with schools and organisations in our area.

Another aspect of what we offer is room hire for all types of events, business and social, regular or occasional. All our rooms are available and are of various sizes, serviced ready for 2 – 60 people, and are offered at very reasonable rates.

Whether you are a regular or occasional visitor, or have never been here and aren't even sure where we are, we're sure there will be something for you. Come and find us in Leyburn, beside the Catholic Church on Richmond Road. Reception is open Monday to Friday from 10.00am to 5.00pm.

The centre is run by volunteers, local people who believe in what the building has to offer to the community and enjoy supporting our visiting professional artists and local groups. We are always looking for new volunteers to help with every aspect of what we do. Do get in touch!

You can contact us by emailing admin@oldschoolhouseleyburn.com

This Evil Thing Written & performed by Michael Mears

January 1916. Bertrand Russell is one of the greatest mathematicians of his time. Bert Brocklesby is a young schoolteacher and Methodist preacher.

When military conscription is brought in, their worlds are turned upside down.

This Evil Thing is the compelling and inspiring story of the men who said no to war. From a chapel in Yorkshire to the House of Commons, from a cell in Richmond Castle to a firing squad in France, the questions raised here are as relevant and urgent as they were 100 years ago.

This highly original piece of storytelling uses verbatim testimonies, a multi-layered interactive soundscape and vivid visual imagery.

Half-a-String Theatre presents

A Heart at Sea

Come and be enthralled by this epic musical folktale told on a miniature scale. A Heart at Sea uses haunting live music to tell the story of a young Boy who bottles up his heart and throws it into the sea. Original songs are set to breath-taking visuals centred around a beautifully carved wooden chest that holds the secrets to the story.

Intricate puppets are swept through a transforming wooden world created by the spectacular chest. Backdrops flip up, pirouette and change, sending the Boy tumbling through this story of whales, tiny boats, sea captains and beards.

Join our hero on his wild journey to recover his missing heart: this piece of stunning visual storytelling will resonate with all ages.

Suitable for ages 7 to 97 or (discretionary) younger children accompanied by adults

Swaledale Festival

Now in its 3rd year, the YSFF takes place each May in association with the University of Huddersfield in cinemas, theatres, arts, music & community venues in Yorkshire, celebrating the art of silent film. At its heart is the craft of the improvising musician, providing live incidental music to films just as musicians did in cinema's early days. A quarter of last year's festival audience were experiencing this for the first time.

There is also a workshop series, Playing Pictures Academy, for musicians keen to develop their skills working with moving image.

A REGULAR LITTLE HOUDINI

Thursday May 31st at 7.30pm

A Regular Little Houdini

Newport, South Wales: a lowly dockworker's son, obsessed with the exploits of magician Harry Houdini, dreams of a life of magic to escape a suffocating, impoverished future amid the industrial detritus of the docklands.

As he trains himself to emulate his hero, his head full of magic, his parents struggle to understand what is happening to their son, until the boy's relentless ambition brings him face to face with the world's greatest showman himself – and with one of the most terrifying events of British industrial history. Daniel Llewelyn-Williams' beautiful play asks how you can follow your dreams and change your own and your community's lives when poverty weighs you down like mud.

Campbell's of Leyburn

Your family run Fine Food and Wine Emporium

Campbell's independent family-owned food emporium has served the Dales for over 140 years, and continues to inspire artisan and local companies, to help pioneer new products and services in order to improve customer choice.

The shop is a first stop for many travellers to Leyburn to view the finest local rare breed meats, an extensive range of store cupboard ingredients, a well-stocked delicatessen and a varied selection of exotic fruits and vegetables.

For those people bored with shopping in supermarkets, and the same limited options, Campbell's exciting selection of artisan cheeses from around the world fills the whole aisle - you are spoilt for choice!

Whether it is local Yorkshire and English cheese - including the famous Wensleydale cheese from Hawes Creamery - or something from further afield, you won't find a better cheese board selection locally.

In our extended upstairs wine department you will find one of the widest selections in the region: over 1,000 wines, more than 150 malt whiskies, plus other spirits, sparkling wines and champagnes. Our successful Wine Club, which hosts visiting growers from major brands, invites you to take up free membership to hear about exclusive offers including tastings, previews and discounts.

We look forward to seeing you in store soon.

HIC!

or The Entire History of Wine (abridged)

in association with Campbell's of Leyburn

How did wine begin? Who put the bubbles in champagne? What was Jeeves' patent morning reviver? What do you do when a chap forgets to pass the port?

Actor Julian Curry (Rumpole of the Bailey, National Theatre and Royal Shakespeare Co) unites his twin passions of wine and theatre in this lighthearted history of wine and wine making. Highly informative and entertaining, with a wealth of anecdote and quotation from wine lovers both real and fictitious - P.G. Wodehouse, Charles Dickens, Oscar Wilde, Dorothy Parker, Jancis Robinson, Hugh Johnson and more.

The entertainment is followed by a wine-tasting hosted by Campbell's famed wine department.

Julian Curry's witty, amusing and highly intelligent Hic! skims across the centuries like a vinous windsurfer. The Observer

Hilarious and well-informed... laughing gear is a pre-requisite. Wine Magazine

An absolute gem. Decanter Magazine
